State of the art

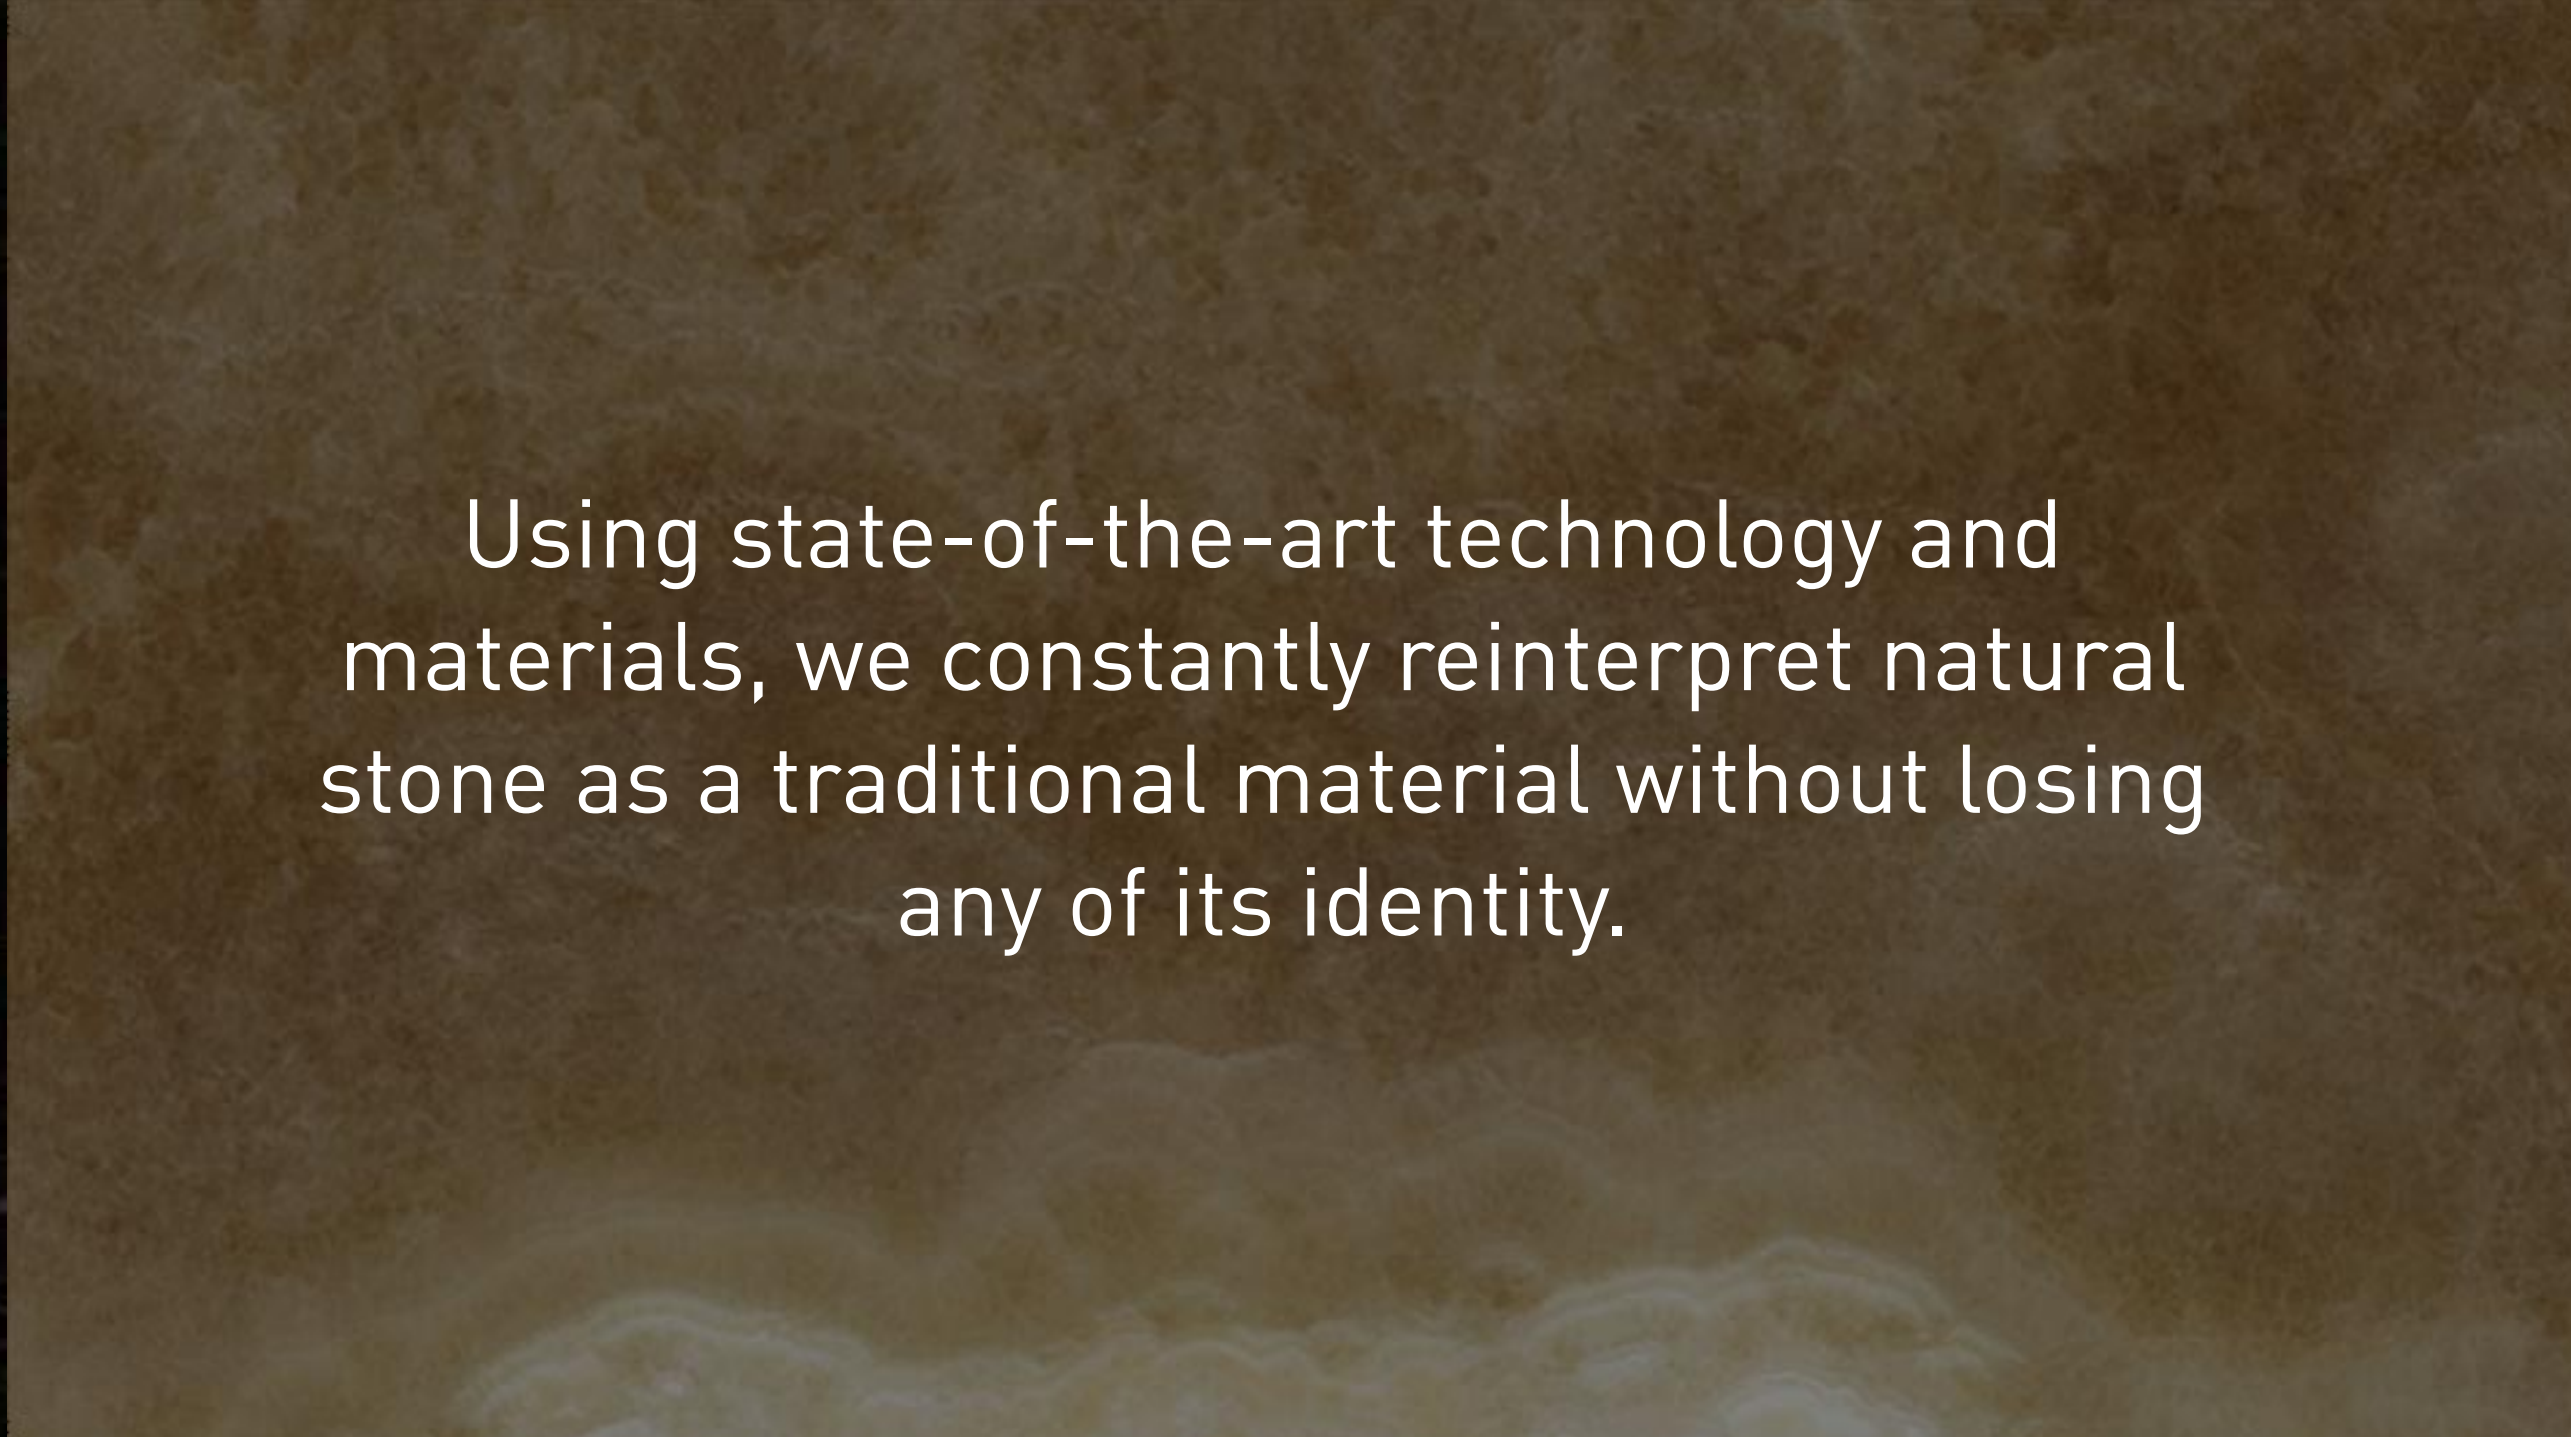

Outstanding achievements throughout the entire project and flawless execution – this is what we promise to deliver.

We are passionate about making our customers' visions a reality for 20 years now.

Our designers, architects, master craftspeople and engineers work together as a good team during every phase of the project.

Using state-of-the-art technology and materials, we constantly reinterpret natural stone as a traditional material without losing any of its identity.

STONE

The word 'STONE' is rendered in large, white, 3D block letters. Each letter is hollow, revealing different interior and exterior architectural details. The 'S' shows a modern living area with a white sofa. The 'T' shows a dark kitchen area. The 'O' shows a white curved sofa. The 'N' shows a colorful patterned pillow. The 'E' shows a dark stone countertop on a wooden base.

KMD creates luxurious, timeless and delightful living spaces with stone.

SIGHTS

The word 'SIGHTS' is rendered in large, white, 3D block letters. Each letter is hollow, revealing different interior architectural details. The 'S' shows a modern living area with a white sofa. The 'I' shows a hallway with a white wall. The 'G' shows a view through a window with a balcony railing. The 'H' shows a staircase with a white railing. The 'T' shows a staircase with a white railing. The 'S' shows a staircase with a white railing.

WE ARE KMD.

A team of more than 100 commercial and technical experts, project managers, designers, engineers and skilled craftsmen.

PASSION.

What brings us together here at KMD is our passion for natural stone. Our success is based on constantly performing with excellence and personal dedication.

THOMAS DIETZ

*Managing Partner KMD Natursteine GmbH & Co. KG |
KMD Projekt GmbH*

We want to spark our customers' enthusiasm. To make that possible, it's important to be in a constant state of reinvention. From offering new materials to developing innovative technical solutions with stone. Our customers appreciate our skill at making dreams come true.

INSPIRE.

MATTHIAS PLATZ

Managing Partner KMD Projekt GmbH

Pioneer ing.

We approach our projects holistically and consider ourselves a full-service partner for our customers. In doing so, we guide them throughout the entire project, from the initial quotation and selection of material to the design, technical planning, manufacturing, installation and final delivery.

1.000 t

We process up to 1,000 tons of natural stone every year to complete our customer's high-end fit-out projects.

EXCEL LENT.

Each KMD project is highly sophisticated and one of a kind. The outstanding final appearance of every interior is paralleled by our excellent project management throughout the entire process.

CARSTEN STEINBRECHER

Project Director

The right choice for your project.

Every journey has to start somewhere. Ours begins with an individual consultation and providing samples. Together with our clients we select the perfect materials for their project.

WE KNOW A GREAT DEAL ABOUT DESIGN AND NATURAL QUALITIES.

The starting point of our work: our customers' expectations and the uniqueness of natural stone itself. 'Nothing is impossible.' This guiding principle helps us think differently every day, creating distinguished interiors with stone with our experienced team of architects and designers.

Led by design manager Michaela Völker, the design team is responsible of the detailed engineering and execution planning of each project.

PERFECTION LIES IN THE DETAILS.

Carsten Steinbrecher, our head of project management, never compromises on materials nor their implementation.

While well-equipped for batch production, manual labour is essential during the manufacturing process. Our skilled craftsmen finish every piece with the utmost precision.

GOOD CRAFTSMANSHIP
STANDS THE TEST OF TIME.

STATE-OF-THE-ART TECHNOLOGY.

Our machinery features numerous CNC-controlled waterjet cutting systems, machining centres, bridge saws and edge-processing machines. Operations manager Sebastian Hofmann ensures that everything runs smoothly during the manufacturing process.

In a production space measuring over 4,500 square metres, we transform custom design solutions into reality, meeting special requirements and producing top quality. We are also able to manufacture large series within a relatively short timeframe.
